

Name: Stefanie Barrios

Credentials: Entrepreneur for over 20 years

Position: Director of Office Operations

School: Accounting

Interests:

Living, Learning, and Loving Life to the fullest have always been on the agenda. From being a Social Organizer of a local Social Group to joining and enjoying music and dance groups ...meeting, mingling, and just moving is part of the motivation! I also have a love for history and things of the past... bringing a passion for antiques, vintage, and collectibles.

A few sentences about you:

I have owned and operated a few of my own businesses for 20 plus years... an Entrepreneur at Heart! Developing my first of four in the Oilfield industry and extending to my own clothing Boutique and Antique shop. Determined and driven with a high energetic personality have made working with people , solving problems and creating solutions to adapt as "easy as pie" and a PLEASURE.

What I do for RQS

It was an honor to be the first to join my brother in is his medical business. Watching and learning from his relentless commitment to patients as well as his inspiring ability to work and communicate with their families and physicians. Many of which have become committed RQS fans, as I have! I can truly attest to the fact that customer service is JOB ONE... the philosophy of putting our patients needs first and respectfully... are the driving force behind RQS. It is MY first and foremost job to maintain this commitment to our patients... and support our Amazing and highly trained staff that have and continue to come aboard RQS.
